Dear Mrityunjay Gupta,

Congratulations!

We are delighted to inform you that you have been selected to receive a 2026 Diana Award.

Your dedication to creating positive change through social action made a strong impression on our global panel of Diana Award Judges. Through your commitment, leadership and impact, you have demonstrated the qualities that The Diana Award seeks to recognise and celebrate in young people around the world.

The Diana Award is the legacy charity of Diana, the late Princess of Wales, who believed in the power of young people to change the world. Each year, we recognise 200 outstanding young changemakers, and we are proud to count you among this year's recipients.

NEXT STEPS

To confirm your acceptance of the Award, please complete the onboarding form below by 31 July 2026:

Onboarding Form

This form enables us to:

- Confirm your details and process your information accurately
- Share your story and achievements publicly (with your consent)
- Include you in the 2026 Virtual Diana Award Ceremony and Roll of Honour

Once you have submitted the form, we will share further details about your certificate, Roll of Honour profile and the celebration event.

Please note: If we do not receive your completed onboarding form by 31 July 2026, we may be unable to include you in this year's recipient cohort.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Please treat this information as strictly confidential until the official announcement on 4 November 2026.

Your nominator, Minal Jain has also been informed of this outcome. If you are under 18, you may share this news with a parent or carer as they will need to complete the onboarding form with you. However, we kindly request that you do not share this news with anyone else or make any public announcements at this time, including on social media.

Maintaining confidentiality is an important condition of receiving the Diana Award. Any unauthorised public disclosure may before the official announcement may result in the award being withdrawn.

Guidance on how and when to share your news will be provided closer to the 2026 Virtual Diana Award Ceremony.

Thank you once again for championing youth-led change. Your work is helping to create a better future, and we are honoured to recognise your achievements through the Diana Award.

If you have any questions, please contact us at awardrecipients@diana-award.org.uk

Warm regards,

Louise & Ayanda
