Dear MRITYUNJAY GUPTA,

Congratulations! Your project, 7934 titled as ECOFOG - A BIODEGRADABLE NANO-STRUCTURED MATERIAL FOR EFFICIENT FOG HARVESTING MESHES IN WATER-SCARCE REGIONS is accepted as a finalist. You must complete the following steps by May 1 in your application portal account.

1) Participant Registration (Required): You must confirm all student participants. Chaperones and guests must also be registered.

2) Participant Payment (Required): Each participant must pay the registration fee. Guests who choose to stay at a hotel must arrange and pay for their hotel. These guests must still pay the discounted registration fee for their food and Niagara Falls trip.

3) Judging Session Selection (Required): You must select a judging session for your project. Each session has a limited capacity and will be filled as first come first serve. Your project will be assigned to a judging group randomly within the selected judging session.

4) Invitation Letter Request (International Participants): You must complete registration and payments before you can request an invitation letter. Your letter will be created and you can download it from application system any time.

5) Trips (Optional): If you plan to attend any of our trips, you must register and complete the payment before May 10.

6) Travel: You must enter all your travel details for all participants by May 10. Genius Olympiad offers bus services from/to JFK airport for additional fees and free buses from Rochester Airport. You must register for bus services to reserve your seats.

6) Performance Registration (Optional): If you want to perform for the award ceremony, you may apply with your performance video.

Please make sure to read the finalist guide on our website for details.

If you have any questions, please use the help (?) button on the application site or contact us at info@geniusolympiad.org.

Sincerely,

Dr. Fehmi Damkaci
