Dear Team Phy-236,

Congratulations! You have been selected to enter the final round, the Oral Defense Session, which will be held on Oct 24 (Sat) at The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

The Oral Defense will be held offline and have no means of online participation for contestants. The oral defense will include a 15 mins presentation and a 5-10 mins Q&A session.

At least one team member(student) should join the Oral Defense. Supervising teacher is not required to attend the Oral Defense.

Travel Arrangement:

· Accommodation and Transportation: Participants will be responsible for arranging their own transport and accommodation, and planning the itinerary. Any expenses incurred from the participation of the oral defense shall normally be borne by participants.

· Airfare Support: We will provide limited airfare support to students who reside in Asian region other than Hong Kong and Macau, and have attended the oral defense. Students may apply for reimbursement of air ticket after the oral defense. (Airfares of accompanying parents, teachers and guardians won't be supported.) The maximum level of support is to be determined.

Please let us know if you would join the on-site Oral Defense by Sept 29 (Tue).

We are looking forward to your reply.

Thank you.

Best regards,

S.T. Yau High School Science Award (Asia)
