I wanted to send my heartfelt congratulations to you on receiving The Diana Award. You should be immensely proud of what you have achieved and the difference you are making in your community and beyond.

This award is deeply personal to me, not only because it carries my mother's name, but because it champions her belief that young people have the power to change the world. You are putting that belief into action and inspiring others in the process.

You have identified challenges in your communities and made it your mission to try and solve them. You are already leading with purpose and the rest of us have a responsibility to listen, invest in you and give you real opportunities to take that work further.

We hope this recognition gives you renewed confidence in your work. Thank you for everything you are doing for others. It's a privilege to celebrate you, and I can't wait to see what you'll accomplish next.

With my warmest congratulations,
